Ontario Seventh-day Adventist Church

January 12, 2012

Dear Church Family:

Welcome to the house of God for worship! Time does not wait for anyone. It marches on. Almost half of January is behind us. We too can march with the time. In what direction? Upward, downward or status quo! When we determine to march upward we grow in grace and in the knowledge of God, and we experience a closer walk with God. When we get caught up in non-essentials, such as gossip, fault finding, judging, envy and jealousy, we are pulled downward. When our lives continue as it has been, with no upward or downward movement, we remain the same year after year, and that is called maintaining status quo.

“There is no limit to the usefulness of one who, by putting self aside, makes room for the working of the Holy Spirit upon his heart, and lives a life wholly consecrated to God. If men will endure the necessary discipline, without complaining or fainting by the way, God will teach them hour by hour, and day by day. He longs to reveal His grace. If His people will remove the obstructions, He will pour forth the waters of salvation in abundant streams through the human channels.” The Desire of Ages, Pages, 250, 251

It is my prayer that we will march upward and be satisfied with the “waters of salvation in abundant streams” as promised above.
