From the Pastor's Desk

Dear Church Family:

This Sabbath I was impressed to share with you, from the pulpit, one of the least talked about fundamental beliefs of the Seventh-day Adventist Church—The Spirit of Prophecy—associated with Ellen G. White.

It is a controversial topic in our churches. Some believe in it, some don't, and there are those who are overly zealous about it. I believe it is important for those of you who were converted from other churches, and/or did not get to attend a Seventh-day Adventist educational institution, or haven't read much in it, to know and understand this fundamental belief of our world-wide church.

You may have heard negative or positive comments about Ellen G. White from church members, relatives, or some other sources. It is important that you examine this vast wealth of spiritual heritage God has given to our church. Then you can join the conversation about The Spirit of Prophecy intelligently and constructively.

Today, I will share with you a very brief sketch of Ellen G. White's life and her contribution in the formation and guidance of our church. After today's presentation, I hope many of you will be inspired to become acquainted with her writings and be blest as I have been blessed. It is only fair to give yourself a chance to examine the importance of The Spirit of Prophecy by reading her writings and arriving at your own conclusions rather than basing your opinion on hearsay. May the Lord help you to this end!

A Gem: "If you judge people, you have no time to love them."
