Dear Church Family:

Another gem from my personal file of collections I want to leave with you. This is a real prayer with substance. I personally have adopted this prayer as my own. Check it out if there are elements in this prayer that you could work on and/or adopt this entire prayer as your very own:

Prayer of an Anonymous Man

“Lord, Thou knowest better than I know myself that I am growing old and some day will be old.

Keep me from getting talkative, and particularly from the fatal habit of thinking I must say something on every subject and on every occasion.

Release me from craving to try to straighten out everyone's affairs.

Keep my mind free from the recital of endless details—give me wings to get to the point.

I ask for grace enough to listen to the tales of others' pains. Help me to endure them with patience. But seal my lips to my own aches and pains—they are increasing and my love of rehearsing them is becoming sweeter as the years go by.

Teach me the glorious lesson that occasionally it is possible that I may be mistaken.

Keep me reasonably sweet; I do not want to be a saint—some of them are hard to live with—but a sour old woman is one of the crowing works of the devil.

Make me thoughtful but not moody; helpful but not bossy.

With my vast store of wisdom, it seems a pity not to use it all—but Thou knowest, Lord, that I want a few friends at the end.” Amen! —Selected

July 14, 2012, was the last Sabbath for Michael Leno and Benjamin Martin as your pastors. The Southeastern Conference asked me to take over the leadership of your church on July 15, 2012. A month later, Pastor Kazar Ackerman was appointed as an assistant pastor. June 29, 2013, is our last Sabbath with you. How quickly time has passed and we must say goodbye. It has been an incredible journey for us. You folks have loved and supported our work with you. Thank you one and all. God bless the Ontario Church family forever.
