FROM OUR NEW PASTOR
AND HIS WIFE

Pastor Heinrich and Elieze Strydom

My wife and I would like to thank the Ontario Church family for the wonderful welcome we received last Sabbath. Everybody was so friendly and welcoming. The International Fellowship lunch was really outstanding and the decorations were beautiful. It took a lot of work from a lot of people and we really appreciate it very much. Thank you also for the beautiful “welcome” cake, it was delicious.

A big thank you also to the children’s department for the welcome banner, it was very special to us. We enjoyed the special music for us at the lunch – you have some very talented children.

We had the privilege of meeting a lot of you last Sabbath, and we are trying very hard to match faces and names, so forgive us if we get mixed up, but we will eventually get it right.

Last week we were challenged to dream big dreams for our church, and by God’s grace our prayer is that God will really bless the Ontario SDA Church and lead us all to a closer walk with Him.

We are excited to See what God is going to do for the Ontario Church. Let us all earnestly pray for our church and ask God for His leadership and for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit.
