AS WE FACE A NEW YEAR

“For the self-help industry, the most wonderful time of the year arrives not at Christmas but in the weeks immediately afterward—that segment of the calendar known to publishers and motivational speakers worldwide as ‘New Year, New You.’ It’s the season of books with titles like Change Your Life in 7 Days and Starting Today: A Journal of Intention and Change,

The symbolic power of the date—1/1—is considerable: judging by past research, more than a third of Americans, including a majority of those under 45, will make New Year’s resolutions this year. Quitting smoking and losing weight, the same research suggests, will loom largest in their plans.

Spoiler alert: most of them will fail.

It’s a curious truth about the happiness industry that, unlike most other industries, it doesn’t have much to gain from selling a product that actually works”. – by columnist, Oliver Burkeman

As Christians, we can have a far more positive and optimistic perspective of the future – both, short term and long term. We have God’s assurance that He “will never leave us, nor forsake us.” We may not know what the future holds, but we know Who holds the future. We can approach and enter 2014 with confidence and hope, knowing that Jesus will walk with us over the mountaintops of our joy and celebrations, but also through the valleys of our pain and grief.

May your journey with Jesus during 2014 be precious and exciting. May there always be a smile on your face and a song in your heart.

Happy New Year, to you and yours.
